Why we are committed to American Cancer Society

American Cancer Society is dedicated to meeting the needs of Kentuckians all over our state. ACS's funds go to support areas such as cancer research, patient support, prevention and education, detection and treatment and so much more. Since it's opening in March 2007, the ACS's Hope Lodge in Lexington has provided more than 56,000 free nights of stay to cancer patients and their families. In 2013, 3,3334 wigs were provided free of charge and 40,608 trips were taken to transport cancer patients to and from treatment provided by American Cancer Society Road to Recovery volunteers and other transportation programs. These are just a few of the reasons Hometown Bank is committed to American Cancer Society's Relay for Life, but the biggest reason we are committed is you. It's time to put a stop to cancer!
